Cut Here

The Inaugural Regatta of Toward Sailing Club attracted entries from most of the established Clyde Clubs. Now, forty seven years on, many of these clubs will again be represented at this popular Annual Regatta. Come and enjoy yourself, bring your friends.

Information

1. Toward Sailing Club is on the A815, eight miles south of Dunoon on the west shore of the Firth of Clyde and one mile west of Toward Lighthouse. By road, it is about two hours drive from Glasgow, via Loch Lomond. Alternatively, a ferry crossing is a 20 minute trip.
2. Ferry services from Gourock are run by Argyll Ferries (passenger only) and from McInroy's Point by Western Ferries (vehicle and passenger) Tickets for Western Ferries can be purchased at special rates from Paul's Food and Wine which is located across the road from the Gourock Train Station car park and from the Co-op in Eldon St.
3. Moorings for Flying Fifteens may be available and, if provided, are at boat owner's risk. Requests must be made on the Regatta Entry Form by the 29th May. Alternatively, moorings may be available in Rothesay Bay, or pontoon berths in Rothesay Harbour and at Port Bannatyne Marina.
4. No accommodation will be available in the Clubhouse, but an area for camping and caravans is available at the club.
5. Pets are not allowed in the dinghy park or clubhouse.
6. The nearest shop is at Innellan, a distance of four miles.
7. The Local Tourist Information Centre will be happy to suggest or arrange accommodation. The phone number is 01369 70 3785.
